Molt County Sentinel.

Oregon, Missouri. FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 80, 1865.

JAMES H. NEIS .- Attention is directed to the card of this gentleman, which appears in another column.

THANKS -Our thanks are due Mr WM. BALL, of the Billiard Saloon, for valuable service kindly rendered us in setting up the office.

Job Printing.

We beg leave to notify our friends that orders on short notice, and at prices as the State.

Celebration at Mound City.

We notice that the patriotic citizens of Mound City have determined to have a celebration of the Fourth in the good old fashioned manner. We are really glad to see so much action and interest taken in the matter. Hope the day will be suitably and pleasantly enjoyed. Let everybody turn out. An invitation is extended to all.

To Advertisers.

The Attention of business men is directed to the fact that the SENTINEL is the only advertising medium in Holt county, and has, in addition to its circulation in the county, a large subscription patronage beyond its limits. The advantage of the SENTINEL as a medium black wan. of reaching the citizens of Holt county is apparent.

Photographs.

We were yesterday shown some specimens of this art from the gallery of Mr. GEORGE P. LUCKHARDT, west of the public square. We profess to be a judge of pictures, and must say that the specimens shown us surpass anything of the kind we have seen up this high. Those in want of pictures will do well to give Mr. LUCKHARDT a trial, and see what can be done at home, be fore going to the city
